RACING FOR PURSES ONLY.

India Rubber Beat Bermuda and Hamilton Lost the Race for Longford.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD I SHEEPSHEAD BAY RACE TRACK, June 110. The public and the bookles quit even yester-day, and to-day the battle for the mighty dollar went on as usual. Those on whom fickle fortune smiles will go home cheerful with the firm conviction that racing is an easy game, and that money comes very easily. Those who lose will swear and register a yow never to play horses again. The same scenes will be repeated. The wild yells with which winners greet the victorious horses as optum to an optum fiend. New life is put into the game.

Into the game.

To-day, at Sheepshead Bay, the task of picking winners looked easy and every one was correspondingly cheerful and happy. The weather was cool and breezy, and this added to the general comfort.

Every one figured, oming to the track, that Kitty Van couldn't lose, but they became rather dublous when they saw Weber's name go up, and subsequent events proved that they had a right to be.

Kitty Van was made favorite, nevertheless, but Weber proved his inability at the finish but Weber proved his inability at the finish.

i. Weber proved his inability at the finish id became rattled when Tarai brought King-ock up alongside of him and . ae result was a best jockey won. The Kapanga flily at ng odds was third.
A strange coincidence was the fact that the ange coincidence was the last that and and the third horse are brother and and bear the same relation to the

The talent in the second race had to get ven for their losses on Kitty Van, and they dunged on Laurestan and made him a hot avorite.

Bermuda was a strong second choice, and was heavily played. He beat practically the same lot the other day, including Laurestan. India Rubber had some few backers and they got all the money, for India Rubber stretched himself at the finish and won by a neck from Bermuda. Lillian was third. The was prominent to the stretch and then quit.

The third race found Langford a strong favorite at the opening, but his price went steadily back until the Dwyer money came on and then his price flopped down. He should have won, but Hamilton laid away too long the strong of the strong laid away too long the stron with him and Long Dance, who was touted as a good thing and heavily played, won by a nose. Hever, at long odds, secured third Brighton Beach Association to Have a Free Field.

PROPHECY ON HIS HIGHNESS

Hamilton's Heart-Troubling Feat on Reclare.

The management of the Brighton Beach Association has decided to follow in the foot-steps of the New York Jockey Club and establish a free field. This is something which the Brighton Beach people should have done long ago. The enormous crowds which visit Coney Island during July and August will no doubt take advantage of this free field and the coffers of the Club will be benefited vastly thereby. The free field at Morris Park was an unqualified success. At Brighton Beach it should prove more than successful.

Last Fall Jimmy Rowe prophesied that I is Highness would prove the best two-year old of this year. The colt was then in ! . The majority report recommended the adoption of a resolution declaring that, as the railroad only occupies about 5 per cent. of the area of Battery Park, and such railroad being the only means of connection of the west side of the city with the South Perry and the public commerce in the transportation of pussengers, renders such occupancy essential; still, the use of the public parks for railroad purposes can only be justified by an overwhelming public necessity.

While desiloring what they think the necessity for using the Battery Park by the Elevated Railroad, the resolution of the majority of the Committee goes on to declare that the public interest would not be furthered by the removal of the Elevated road's structure.

The other report, signed by Alderman John Morris, declaring that public parks are places of resort for amisement, health and recreation, and that no portion of them should be used for realroad purposes.

Montana's race was a poor one yesterday, and it he was at his best he will not do for the Realization Stakes, which will be run to-morew. Harnes worked Montana out a mile and rive-stghths, the full Realization distance, but he did not do it well. At this writing, Potomer, Strabmeath and Hoodlum look the most likely of the entries for the big stakes. most likely of the entries for the big stakes.

Clayton won the last race with St. John yes-Clayton won the last race with St. John yesterday by the excesse of a little cunning, St. John lod late the stretch and John Cavahagh and Tammany ranged alongside of him. Clayton cutoly edge its. John to the outside, carrying the other two with him and intertering with them just enough to tangle them up and rattle both Hamilton and Tarst. Then he cut losse with St. John and barely won by a short head twin Come to Taw, who came like a streak on the inside.

The Hudson County Jackey Club will hold Its Summer meeting at Guttenburg late in August. The opening day will be Friday. Aug. 21. The Brighten Beach people and the Guttenburg management have agreed not to interfere with each others lates. Socretary Wittehead will probably succeed in eathern many good horses to the hilltop track with well arranged programmes.
